

Mini-Book

The development of a mini-book requires that the student identify main ideas within the material taught. The mini-book is created by folding a sheet of paper to create an eight-page book. Students are given specific categories and each page features a drawing and words that summarize a key concept.

Click here for instructions for folding the mini-book

